Clarification of News Report

We write in response to your request for clarification and/or confirmation on the news article entitled "Aboitiz, CLC keen on regional airports" posted in BusinessWorld Online on 12 April 2018. The article reported in part that:

"ABOITIZ INFRACAPITAL, Inc. (AIC) and Chelsea Logistics Holdings Corp. (CLC) remain interested in upgrading several regional airports, even after the Department of Transportation (DoTr) rejected the companies' respective unsolicited proposals.

However, the two companies are awaiting the details of the planned public bidding for the operations and maintenance (O&M) contracts for several regional airports, before making a final decision on their participation.

CLC President and CEO Chryss Alfonsus V. Damuy said the company is looking at joining the bidding for the airport projects.

"We are seriously looking at it, it would be a waste if we did not consider as we have already done a study," Mr. Damuy told BusinessWorld in a phone interview.

Davao businessman Dennis A. Uy's CLC submitted last February a P67-billion proposal to expand and operate Davao and New Bohol with a 30-year concession.

We confirm the news report but will clarify certain matters.

CLC has spent time and resources for our proposal and wish to pursue the unsolicited proposal. It is logical to participate in the bidding for the regional airports. However, to clarify, CLC has not yet finalized its decision to submit its final bid for the regional airports as it has not yet seen the Terms of Reference (TOR) for the bidding. CLC shall make its final decision upon review of the TOR.
