Update on Davao International Airport Bid

Background/Description of the Disclosure

On October 2018, Chelsea Logistics has been awarded the Original Proponent Status for its unsolicited proposal that includes the development, operation and management of the Davao International Airport over a concession period of 30 years.

In a recent forum held in Davao, Chelsea Logistics Holdings Corp. released its timeline for the Davao International Airport project. Currently, the National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) is reviewing the Company's proposal, the approval of which is estimated to be decided on July with subsequent submission of comparative bids expected on October.

CLC recently received NEDA's comments related to the concession agreement and is currently preparing its official response for submission.
